South Coast Child Wellbeing Network Conference 2024

Big Emotions, Best Practice

Social and Emotional Wellbeing

Cost
$95

The conference aim is to promote awareness, education and approaches to keeping children safe. Together we aim to show the importance of the child and family practitioner community working together to strengthen and grow our knowledge and understanding to help support children and their families.

The conference will feature two keynote speakers, Lisa Gardiner and Kim Billington, as well as workshops facilitated by various professionals in their fields demonstrating different theories and practices to help support at-risk children and families.

Lisa Gardiner, Secure Base Solutions

With over 30 years of experience working across the health, human services, early learning and education sectors, Lisa specialises in working with vulnerable populations, early childhood trauma and disrupted attachment and works collaboratively with individuals and agencies to develop better practice.

Kim Billington, Counsellor and Clinical Supervisor

Over 30 years, Kim has worked in the fields of family violence, family separation, men's behaviour change programs, bereavement, crisis telephone counselling and as registered clinical supervisor with the Monasah Masters of Counselling team.
